Instructional Planning

Planning instruction with the Assessment and Remediation Guide is guided by:

- observation of student performance during instruction from the Kindergarten Teacher’s Guide lessons.
- student scores on performance assessments throughout the Kindergarten units.
- progress monitoring assessments from the Assessment and Remediation Guide.

Step 1: Use the Cross Reference charts and Determining Student Need flow charts provided for each component (i.e., Phonological Awareness, Phonics, and Writing) within the unit. The Cross Reference chart helps you consider student performance across the lessons and with any Pause Points utilized. Instructional activities are organized by unit objectives. Therefore, if students struggled significantly with activities from particular rows of the chart, the unit objective to target is indicated in the first column. The Determining Student Need flow chart prompts you to additionally consider student assessment performance.

Step 2: If a need for remediation is indicated, refer to the Kindergarten Skills Scope and Sequence (provided in the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide Introduction) to consider whether remedial instruction may need to begin at an earlier unit.

Step 3: Consider students’ Level of Instructional Need. A description of the three Levels of Instructional Need is provided in the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide Introduction. Establishing a level of instructional need will direct you to a corresponding lesson structure provided at the beginning of each unit.

Step 4: Select exercises and assessments and prepare associated materials for instruction and progress monitoring.

Step 5: Use ongoing evaluation of student instructional performance and progress monitoring to facilitate decisions about student progress or ongoing remediation needs.

Thoughtful observation of daily performance, integration of assessment with instruction, and provision of target remediation as quickly as possible will help most struggling Kindergarten students become successful Kindergarten students!

Lesson Structures for Levels of Instructional Need

The Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide will serve students who:

- may enter Kindergarten with known literacy skill educational needs requiring instruction beyond the Skills strand Teacher Guide lessons.
- may have significant instructional needs identified by the student performance assessments throughout the Kindergarten units.
- may complete some Kindergarten units yet demonstrate a lack of preparedness for subsequent units.
- Depending on the severity of student instructional need, instructional personnel available, and student grouping options, materials from the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide may be used for:
 - guided reinforcement
 - explicit reteaching
 - comprehensive reteaching

The Lesson Templates within each section provide a detailed model the sequence of instructional steps to be followed when reteaching the particular skill(s) targeted in that section. The Lesson Templates are followed by a Sample Remedial Lesson illustrating how specific skill work, activities, and progress monitoring can be applied to the template. The following Lesson Structures illustrate how the Lesson Templates and Sample Remedial Lessons from each section align to the Explicit Reteaching structure and provide guidance for how to make more abbreviated (Guided Reinforcement Structure) or more complete (Comprehensive Reteaching Structure) use of the Lesson Templates and Sample Remedial Lessons from each section.

Guided Reinforcement Lesson Structure

The Guided Reinforcement Lesson Structure provides guidance for how to use only the supported practice elements from the Lesson Templates. This structure provides an abbreviated lesson geared for reinforcing developing skills not yet mastered.

Guided Reinforcement	Exercise	Materials	Minutes
Warm-Up	See corresponding section Lesson Templates for Warm-Up activity descriptions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three): Thumbs-Up Review • For Phonics: Match Me • For Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation: Handwriting Warm-Up 	Activity Dependent	3

Note: Progress monitoring related to instruction from Guided Reinforcement lessons may be integrated within instructional times other than these brief remedial lessons, or remedial instructional time may be devoted to completed progress monitoring as needed.

Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structure

The Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structure aligns with the Lesson Templates. This structure provides a more complete lesson geared for explicit instruction for selected unit objectives.

Warm-Up	See corresponding section Lesson Templates for Warm-Up activity descriptions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three): Thumbs-Up Review • For Phonics: Match Me • For Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation: Handwriting Warm-Up 	Activity Dependent	3

Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson Structure

The Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson Structure also aligns with the Lesson Templates. This structure provides a more instructional time allowing for integration of activities from multiple sections when multiple unit objectives are targets for remediation.

Comprehensive Reteaching	Exercise	Materials	Minutes
Warm-Up	See corresponding section Lesson Templates for Warm-Up activity descriptions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three): Thumbs-Up Review • For Phonics: Match Me • For Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation: Handwriting Warm-Up 	Activity Dependent	3

Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring	Activities with which students have demonstrated independence may engage students when progress monitoring with individuals is needed.	Activity Dependent Progress Monitoring Resources	10

Note: If a single remedial instruction session does not allow enough time to complete the Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson, then the instruction can be divided over two instructional sessions instead. A split lesson structure may look like this:

Session 1	Session 2
Warm-Up Explicit Instruction Guided Practice (working with skills) Initiate Guided Practice (applying skills)	Warm-Up Explicit Instruction Continue Guided Practice (applying skills) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring

A single objective should be the primary focus of any given remedial instruction session. If you are using the Comprehensive Reteaching lesson structure and students are in need of explicit instruction related to multiple components (i.e., Phonological Awareness, Phonics, and Writing), then rotate the focus selected for Explicit Instruction and the related Guided Practice (working with skills) throughout a series of sessions. A rotating focus may look like this:

Session 1	Session 2	Session 3	Session 4
Warm-Up: Phonological Awareness focus Explicit Instruction: Phonological Awareness focus Guided Practice (working with skills): Phonological Awareness focus Guided Practice (applying skills): Combination from component areas (e.g., a Phonological Awareness and a Writing Readiness activity) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring: Writing activity (observing for success independently)	Warm-Up: Phonics focus Explicit Instruction: Phonics focus Guided Practice (working with skills): Phonics focus Guided Practice (applying skills): Combination from component areas (e.g., a Phonological Awareness and a Phonics activity) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring: Phonics progress monitoring assessment	Warm-Up: Writing focus Explicit Instruction: Writing focus Guided Practice (working with skills): Writing focus Guided Practice (applying skills): Combination from component areas (e.g., a Phonics and a Writing activity) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring: Continue Phonics progress monitoring assessment	Repeat Sequence (Perhaps the sessions focusing on phonological awareness and writing do not occur as frequently as the sessions focusing on phonics.)

Guide Organization

Instruction from the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide will be most effective when used in either one-on-one or small group settings. Learning is optimized when instruction is facilitated by a teacher with expertise related to literacy instruction. Small teacher-to-student ratios maximize individual learning, particularly through increased opportunity for immediate (reinforcing or corrective) feedback for each student.

A description of the Basic and Advanced Code taught to students using CKLA materials starting in Kindergarten immediately follows this overview. This description will provide insight and context for how phonics skills are introduced in Kindergarten and taught throughout Grades 1 and 2.

This unit's materials are organized into sections by component area (i.e., Phonological Awareness, Phonics, and Writing) and aligned with the objectives from the CKLA Skills strand units. Within the sections you will find:

- Determining Student Need Chart: A chart is supplied for your reference to determine student need for instruction from any given unit and section of the Assessment and Remediation Guide.
- Lesson Template & Sample: The Lesson Templates within each section provide a detailed model of the sequence of instructional steps to be followed when reteaching the particular skill(s) target in that section. The Lesson Templates are followed by a Sample Remedial Lesson illustrating how specific skill work, activities, and progress monitoring can be applied to the template. These Lesson Templates and Sample Lessons align with the Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structure described at the beginning of each unit. Guidance for how to adapt the Lesson Templates and Sample Lessons from each section for the Guided Reinforcement or Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson Structure is found at the beginning of each unit.
- Lesson Reference Charts: When applicable, reference charts are provided to help you adjust the difficulty of your lessons, ensuring students are appropriately scaffolded or challenged.
- Dimensions of Difficulty: This chart is provided for your use to accelerate or reduce the task difficulty for students.
- Cross-Reference Charts: The objectives for each section are cross referenced to the lessons and Pausing Points from the CKLA Skills Strand units. The alignment of objectives and activities can be seen at a glance, facilitating coordinated and target use of both the Skills strand units and the Assessment and Remediation Guide.
- Word Lists: Collections of words, phrases, or sentences needed for activities are provided. These lists are not intended to be exhaustive or restrictive. This resource is included to facilitate lesson preparation; however, teachers are welcome to use the lists as models for adding words, phrases, or sentences of their own.

- Worksheets: Worksheets may be utilized to facilitate modeling during Explicit Instruction, supervised practice and application of skills during Guided Practice, or reinforcement during Independent Practice.
- Games/Activities: Games and activities are provided inviting students to apply and strengthen the target skills.
- Sentences & Stories for Oral Reading: In later units, decodable Text is provided allowing students to practice the discrete skills taught and creating a bridge for the generalization of those skills to other forms of connected text.
- Poems/Songs/Nursery Rhymes: Poems, songs, and nursery rhymes foster students' love of language. When applicable, related activities are included to provide engaging opportunities for students to play with sounds and words.
- Progress Monitoring: Resources for progress monitoring are included at the end of each section. These tools are intended to facilitate data collection to inform instruction and build a record of student's progress.
- Progress Monitoring in Units 1 and 2 focuses on observing student application of skills during instructional practice rather than using specific measures with explicit criteria for identifying adequate or inadequate performance. This is purposeful. Though students who struggle with Unit 1 and Unit 2 objectives should receive related reteaching to bolster those skills, it is also important that they do not linger too long at these earliest steps. Kindergarten students need to move swiftly into the objectives of Unit 3 and beyond to have the opportunity to work with specific phonemes. In Unit 3 the Progress Monitoring changes to utilizing specific measures with criteria. Whereas students will have the opportunity to continue to develop Unit 1 and Unit 2 skills as they move forward, beginning with Unit 3, high levels of proficiency with the skills within the unit are required for success in subsequent units.

Section I

Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three)

Determining Student Need for Section I, Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three)

Blending Boost!

Orally blending two or three phonemes is a primary focus of the activities in Unit 2, Section II of the Assessment and Remediation Guide. Unit 3 allows for continued development of this skill. It also provides progress monitoring assessments for evaluating students' ability to apply blending with the target sound/spellings for Unit 3. The Blending Boost! activities may be done in isolation with students who need additional practice or may be incorporated into the Phonological Awareness Lesson Template for this section. A blending activity may be used instead of or in addition to the Thumbs-Up Review for the Warm-Up. If students demonstrate the need for more comprehensive instruction with oral blending, access additional resources in Unit 2, Section II of the Assessment and Remediation Guide.

Find My Word

Use Find My Word pages A–D to have students blend the phonemes to “Find My Word” (i.e., identify the objects) on the page.

- Provide students with a copy of the selected Find My Word worksheet.
- Review the names of the depicted items with students and see if they can identify the category for the page (animals, body parts, things in the sky, or vehicles).
- Pronounce the name of an object by saying the phonemes with a pause in between (e.g., /d/ [pause] /o/ [pause] /g/).
- Students blend the phonemes and point to the picture of the object.
- Repeat until all the pictures are identified.
- Encourage students to use the blending motions they have learned to help them blend the sounds.
- Option: Manipulatives can be used to cover pictures as they are identified.
- Variation: Students may practice segmenting phonemes by breaking apart the phonemes in names of the objects on the page themselves

Push & Say

Use Sound Boxes to have students represent phonemes with objects.

- Provide the Sound Boxes page and a handful of small objects (e.g., cubes, tiles, beans, buttons, etc.) for each student.
- Students repeat the sounds and push an object into the boxes for each phoneme (from left to right). Then students run their finger under the boxes (from left to right) and blend the sounds to say the word. Tell students they may not always use every box, but they should always start with the first box on the left.
- Use this page along with your own word list (See Phonemes—Word Lists for suggestions.) or Find My Word pages.

Note: Though /x/ is a sound combination of /k/ and /s/ it is taught as one sound. You may praise students who recognize /x/ as a sound combination, but they are to treat it as one sound, placing one object in the box to represent the phoneme. Similarly, when /qu/ occurs in the initial position of words, praise students who recognize /qu/ as a sound combination of /k/ and /w/, but they are to represent the phoneme with one object in the corresponding box.

Blending Motions for Two to Four Phonemes

Two-Phoneme Words (Hand Motion)

For lessons that target blending two-phoneme words, utilize the gross motor hand motions first applied to blending phonemes (as opposed to syllables) in Skills Strand Unit 2, Lesson 2. This motion prompts students to:

1. Hold your fists in front of you, palms facing down.
2. Flip over your left fist and open it as you say the first of two phonemes (e.g., /n/).
3. Flip over your right fist and open it as you say the second of two phonemes (e.g., /oe/).
4. Clap your hands as you say the whole word with the phonemes blended (e.g., no).

Three-Phoneme Words (Arm Motion)

For lessons that target blending three-phoneme words, utilize the gross motor hand motions first learned in Skills Strand Unit 2, Lesson 3. This motion prompts students to:

1. Hold your right arm in front of your body.
2. Touch your left shoulder as you say the first of three phonemes (e.g., /f/).
3. Touch your left elbow as you say the second of three phonemes (e.g., /u/).
4. Touch your left wrist as you say the third of three phonemes (e.g., /n/).
5. Slide your right hand from your left shoulder down to your left wrist as you say the whole word with the phonemes blended (e.g., fun).

Two other variations for blending three-phoneme words are located in the Unit 2 Pausing Point section Blend Two or Three Sounds to Form a Word:

- Touch It!
- Clapping and Slapping Sounds

Two- to Four-Phoneme Words (Finger Motion)

Finger tapping is an option for students ready for fine motor movement. It is first described in Skills Strand Unit 2 Appendix A, and can be used when blending two- to four-phoneme words. This motion prompts students to:

1. Tap your pointing finger against your thumb as you say the first phoneme (e.g., /f/).
2. Tap your middle finger against your thumb as you say the second phoneme (e.g., /u/).
3. Tap your ring finger against your thumb as you say the third phoneme (e.g., /n/).
4. Tapping your pinkie finger against your thumb can be used if the word has a fourth phoneme.
5. Make a fist as you say the whole word with the phonemes blended (e.g., fun).

Using the Articulation Chart, ask students yes or no questions about the target phonemes (/m/, /a/, /t/, /d/, /o/, /k/, /g/, /i/). You may choose to complete a select review of specific phonemes with which students demonstrated difficulty or a mixed review of all the taught phonemes. If the answer is “no,” show it with a thumbs-down. • A fun way to let students check their own answer is to hide the correct thumbs-up or thumbs-down behind a piece of paper and reveal it once everyone has decided on their answer. • If anyone provided an incorrect answer, model the correct articulation and have students repeat after you. For example, if a student gave a thumbs-down for the question, “Can you stretch the sound for /a/?” then model holding the /a/ sound /aaaaa/ and have students repeat. • Continue with another question. Keeping notes on the Articulation Chart regarding information mastered, progressing, or unfamiliar will help you formulate questions target to student need.	Articulation Chart and Mirrors

Dimensions of Difficulty

Lessons can be crafted to be more or less difficult by varying the target position for listening for phonemes in a word and the type of phoneme contrasts examined. The chart below illustrates how lessons can be designed to be more or less challenging across both dimensions.

Least Difficult	Contrast Phonemes with Distinct Articulation Features (e.g., /m/ and /a/)	Contrast Phonemes with Similar Articulation Features (e.g., minimal pairs /a/ and /i/)
Skill
Isolate a sound in the initial position
Isolate a sound in the medial position		Most Difficult

Articulation Chart

Refer to this chart for Warm-Up activities or any other time when reviewing articulation may help clarify letter-sound knowledge for students. Often students who struggle with the sound information of phonemes are supported by knowledge of the mechanical (i.e., physical) aspects of phonemes. For example, if students struggle to hear the difference between /t/ and /d/, they can rely on recognizing whether their voice is on or off to help identify the phoneme. Additional information other than material students learned in the Skills Strand Lessons is noted in italics.

Phoneme	Articulation Features (Notice in the Mirror)	Is Your Voice On or Off?	Can You Stretch the Sound?
/m/	Lips are together (Air goes through your nose! Pinch your nose and you'll cut off the sound.)	On	Yes
/a/	Mouth is open wide and the tongue is low in the front of the mouth	On	Yes
/t/	Tip of the tongue taps behind the upper teeth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /d/.)	Off	No*
/d/	Tip of the tongue taps behind the upper teeth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /t/.)	On	No*
/o/	Mouth is open wide and jaw is lower than for /a/	On	Yes
/k/	Back of the tongue touches the roof of the mouth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /g/.)	Off	No*
/g/	Back of the tongue touches the roof of the mouth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /k/.)	On	No*
/i/	Mouth is open wide and jaw is higher than for /a/	On	Yes

Note: To check for voicing, put your hand on your throat as you make a letter-sound. If your voice is ON you will feel it vibrate!

*Plosive sounds are difficult to pronounce in isolation making it tempting to add a short vowel sound after the consonant sound (e.g., /buh/ instead of /b/). When you teach these sounds, make an effort to keep the sounds as clipped as possible.

Minimal Pairs

- /t/ and /d/ are minimal pairs because the only difference is whether the voice is on or off.
- /k/ and /g/ are minimal pairs because the only difference is whether the voice is on or off.
- /a/, /o/, and /i/ are minimal pairs because the only difference is the increased or decreased opening of the mouth. Producing the vowel sounds in this order: /i/, /a/, /o/, allows you to best feel the increased opening for each new vowel sound.

Vowel Facts Learned in Unit 3 Skills Strand Lessons:

1. Vowel sounds are made with the mouth open.
2. Vowel sounds are the parts of words you stretch out when you sing.
3. Vowel sounds are the sounds people stretch out when they call someone's name.
4. Every word has a vowel sound.

If visual support is desired as a scaffold or required for activities such as blending to identify a picture, use words noted in bold (from Blending Picture Cards included as a Skills Strand resource) or italic (from Sound Cards included as a Skills Strand resource).

*These high-frequency words are included as additional examples of words with the target short vowel sound in the initial position. These words are often more challenging for students because the words are not easily connected to a concrete meaning.

Sound Boxes: Identify the Position

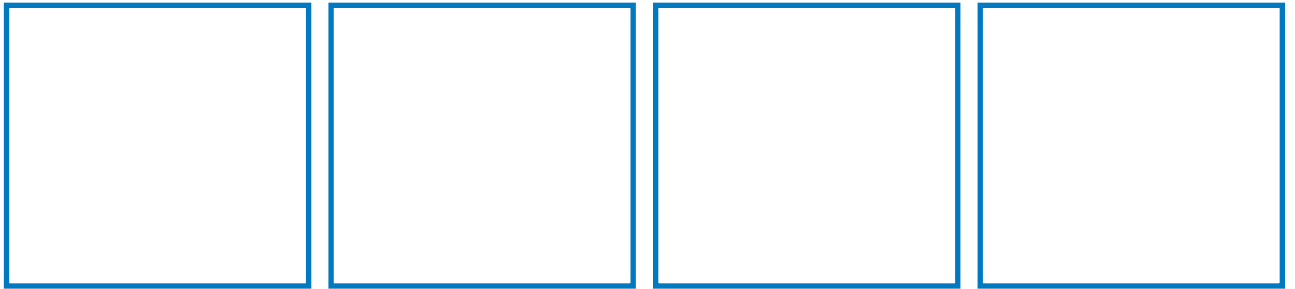

Use Sound Boxes to have students indicate the position (initial, medial, or final) of target sounds in 2- and 3-phoneme words.

- Provide a worksheet for each student.
- Say a target sound and word using the sentence frame: Where is / __/ in the word _____? For example: Where is /g/ in the word got?
- Students repeat the word and segment the sounds, touching the boxes from left to right for each phoneme.
- Then students place a cube (or other object: beans, buttons, etc.) in the box matching the position of the target sound.

Name: _____

Sound Boxes: Phonological Awareness (Identify the Position)

Directions: Say a target sound and word using the sentence frame: Where is / ___ / in the word ____? Students repeat the word and segment the sounds, touching the boxes from left to right for each phoneme. Then students place a cube (or other object) in the box matching the position of the target sound.

Four empty rectangular boxes are arranged horizontally in a row. Each box is intended for a student to place a cube or other object to identify the position of a target sound within a word.

Phonemes—Games

Note to Teacher

The following games should be restricted to the target sounds: /m/, /a/, /t/, /d/, /o/, /k/, /g/, and /i/.

Give Me a Word

Gather a collection of any variety of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).

- Tell students you will provide a sound and want them to say a word starting with that sound. For example: Give me a word starting with /m/. (If students struggle to think of a word, prompt them to look around the room for objects starting with the target sound.)
- As students provide words starting with the target phoneme, give them a block. With each block, students get a turn to place it, building a collective structure as the game continues.

Give Me the Sound

This is a variation of Give Me a Word (above).

Gather a collection of any variety of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).

- Tell students you will provide a word and want them to say the sound at the beginning of the word. For example: Give me the sound at the beginning of mop. (If students struggle to identify the beginning sound, repeat the word with the beginning sound drawn out: mmmmop.)
- As students provide beginning sounds, give them a block. With each block, students get a turn to place it, building a collective structure as the game continues.
- If successful with identifying beginning sounds, students could play this game by identifying sounds in the medial (vowels) or final position of words.

Picture Cards

Picture Cards are provided for use with the following games.

/m/	/a/	/t/	/d/
mat	hat	tag	dad
moon	tag	teeth	dig
moth	cat	tub	dog
mug	mad	tape	dish
/o/	/k/	/g/	/i/
log	cat	gill	chick
mom	cone	gift	fish
sock	cup	gate	mitt
dot	cow	goat	pig

- The following games should target sounds in the initial and medial position and be restricted to the target sounds: /m/, /a/, /t/, /d/, /o/, /k/, /g/, and /i/.
- Contrast combinations should be target according to student readiness (see Dimensions of Difficulty).
- We recommend copying and cutting the images from card stock to allow for reuse. For Memory, the images will need to be copied onto darker colored paper, otherwise students can see the images through the paper when they are turned over.

Isolating Sounds (Receptive)

- Lay out the picture cards for 2–4 target sounds.
- Review the names of all the pictures.
- Ask students to find a picture of something with the /_/ sound in the beginning/middle.

Isolating Sounds (Expressive)

- Lay out the picture cards for 2–4 target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Ask students to tell you the beginning/middle sound for selected picture. (Scaffold this activity by naming the picture. If additional support is needed, segment the sounds for students.)

Closed Sorts

- Provide picture cards for 2–4 target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Tell students which target sounds they need to listen for to help them sort the pictures.
- Complete the sorting with the appropriate level of support.
- Once the pictures are sorted, have students identify the sound for each category and name the pictures in each group to recheck their sort.
- A variation is the Speed Sort, in which you time students so they can race against themselves to get their best time.

Open Sorts

- Provide picture cards for 2–4 target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Ask students to decide how to sort the pictures into groups according to beginning or vowel sounds.
- Once the pictures are sorted, have students identify the sound for each category and name the pictures in each group to recheck their sort.

Memory

- Provide picture cards for 2–4 target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Model how to mix up the cards, lay them out, and take turns turning pairs over to look for matches.
- The goal is to match for the target sounds, such as two words beginning with /t/.
- As students become comfortable with the game they may be able to play independently.

Phonemes—Poems/Songs/Nursery Rhymes (P/S/NR)

Alliteration

Recite either of the following poems changing the alliteration for “Wee Willie Winkie” or “Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater” to a Unit 3 consonant target sound: /m/, /t/, /d/, /k/, or /g/. For example: Dee Dillie Dinkie runs through the town. Ask students to listen for your mixed-up beginning sound and tell you the mixed-up sound they heard (e.g., /d/).

- “Wee Willie Winkie” (P/S/NR Resource 24)
- “Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater” (P/S/NR Rhyme Resource 25)

Name: _____

Directions: Ask students to listen for the mixed-up beginning sound in Wee Willie Winkie's name as you recite the poem changing the /w/ in the name to a Unit 3 consonant target sound: /m/, /t/, /d/, or /k/.

Wee Willie Winkie

Wee Willie Winkie runs through the town,
Upstairs and downstairs in his nightgown,
Rapping at the window, crying through the lock:
Are all the children in their beds? It's past eight o'clock!

Name: _____

Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater,
Had a wife and couldn't keep her.
He put her in a pumpkin shell
And there he kept her very well.

Directions: Ask students to listen for the mixed-up beginning sound in Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater as you recite the poem changing the /p/ in the name to a Unit 3 consonant target sound: /m/, /t/, /d/, /k/, or /g/.

Phonemes—Progress Monitoring

For Units 1 and 2 of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring was facilitated by charting general performance levels and scores on unassisted items from the Guided Practice portion of the lessons. For Unit 3 and beyond, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment integrated into instruction. The resources provide a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention. We recommend using the progress monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the target skills for this section of Unit 3. Set schedules for progress monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and a meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the target skills is confirmed by a Progress Monitoring assessment, then teachers can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a Progress Monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Blending

Preparation: Copy the page of pictures corresponding to the Progress Monitoring Assessment (#1–4) you have selected.

- Review the names of all pictures first.
- Tell students you are going to say groups of sounds and they should blend those sounds in their heads to make a word. Then they should circle the matching picture on the worksheet.
- Model with the sample item.
- Instruct students to look at the next row of pictures and say, “Please circle the picture of the (say the target object in segmented fashion, pausing slightly between each phoneme).”
- Complete the remaining rows.
 - Scoring: One point is awarded for each correctly identified picture.
 - Goal: 4 or 5 correct.
 - Scores of 3 or less indicate additional re-teaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 3 Section I: Phonological Awareness: Blending Boost! or possibly Unit 2 Section II: Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three).

Isolating Target Sounds in the Initial or Medial Position

Preparation: Copy the page of pictures you have selected corresponding to the Progress Monitoring Assessment (#1–4).

- Review the names of all pictures first.
- Explain to students you are going to say two words at a time. The words will be very similar, but one will have the target sound. Ask students:
 - “Which picture begins with the / __ / sound?” (for beginning consonants)
 - Or “Which picture has the / __ / sound in the middle?” (for medial vowels)
- Students should circle the matching picture on the worksheet.
- Model with the sample item.
- Instruct students to look at the next row of pictures and circle the picture with the target sound.
- Complete the remaining rows.
 - Scoring: One point is awarded for each correctly identified picture.
 - Goal: 4 or 5 correct.
 - Scores of 3 or less indicate that additional reteaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 3 Section I: Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three).

Dimensions of Difficulty

Lessons can be crafted to be more or less difficult by varying the salience (i.e., sound clarity) of phonemes and the type of phoneme contrasts that are examined. The chart below illustrates how lessons can be designed to be more or less challenging across both dimensions.

Least Difficult	Contrast Phonemes with Distinct Articulation Features (e.g., /m/ and /a/)	Contrast Phonemes with Similar Articulation Features (e.g., minimal pairs /a/ and /i/)
Phonemes

Consonants with Plosive Sound (i.e., cannot be stretched) /t/, /d/, /k/, and /g/
Vowels /a/, /o/, and /i/		Most Difficult

Note: Pseudowords are often included in the chains, especially at this early stage when the number of real words that can be read or spelled is limited. Spelling pseudowords also forces students to solely use phonics knowledge because they cannot rely on memorized spelling. You may wish to point out when a word is not a real word or ask students to identify when a silly word is included.

Review the Sound/Spelling

Review the target sound/spellings from Unit 3 with these worksheets.

- The image of the girl pronouncing the target sound is provided to prompt attention to the articulation of the sound (See the Articulation Chart in Section I). The word provided is an exemplar allowing students to listen for the target sound within a word.
- Letter formation arrows are also provided for the picture of each sound, which can serve as a reference when writing and/or as tracing practice if used with a clear plastic sleeve and dry erase marker.
- A few items are revisited from the Meet the Spelling Worksheets of Unit 3 to prompt students to listen for the target sound and practice its letter formation.

Push & Say

Use Sound Boxes to have students build words with support for individual sounds.

- Provide the Sound Boxes page and a set of Letter Cards corresponding to the words selected for building. Students should line up the letter cards below the Sound Boxes page.

Note: Multiple copies of consonants are needed for words such as mom, did, and gag.

- Say a word, such as did.
- Students echo the word and then individually work to select the Letter Cards for the sound/spellings identified as they segment the word into phonemes.
- Have students place the Letter Cards directly below the boxes in the correct positions from left to right. Tell students they will not always use all the sound boxes.
- Once you see a student is ready, ask him or her to push the cards into the boxes from left to right and say the sound as he or she pushes each card. Immediately, students should run their finger under the word in one smooth motion and say the whole word blended.
- Clear the board for the next word.
- Sound Boxes can be used in varied ways:
 - Select words from the Phonics—Word Lists for students to practice building and blending target sound/spellings.
 - Students who struggle to write the words from the Making Words activities in this section, may be supported by building in Sound Boxes first and then copying the word onto the handwriting lines.
 - Sound Boxes may also support students during Chaining activities. For reading the teacher may build or write sound/spellings in the boxes to help highlight the positions of phonemes, particularly helping to focus student attention to the correct position as spellings change to form a new word. Similarly, for spelling the students may build or write sound/spellings in the boxes for support as they break apart and record the phonemes they hear in words.
- If additional support is needed, first practice by asking students to flip their Letter Cards over to the blank side and Push & Say for a few practice words using the blank side of the cards. This removes the component of identifying the correct sound/spelling, allowing students to start with a focus on the sounds and their positions before adding in the task of connecting the sounds to spellings.

- It will be least difficult for students to build words in which the vowel and final position consonant stay the same and only the beginning sound is changed (e.g., it > mit > kit > dit). The next step is to keep a stable vowel and only change the beginning and ending sounds (e.g., mat > mad > dad > tad) If successful, ask students to manipulate sounds from any position (e.g., got > dot > dog > dig).

Students echo the word and segment the sounds, placing corresponding letter cards below the boxes from left to right. Then students push the letter cards into the boxes from left to right and say the sound as they push each card. Immediately, students run their finger under the word in one smooth motion and say the whole word blended.

Sound Boxes: Phonics

Making Words

Students reinforce phonics knowledge by making words.

- Select a Making Words page according to the sound-spellings targeted for remediation.
 - Pages 1–6 offer the highest level of support by having students make words by manipulating the sound in the initial position only.
 - Pages 7–9 have students make words by manipulating the sound in the initial and final position.
- Model how to use the letters surrounding the center box to make words.
- Tracing the path of letters may support students as they attempt sound-spelling combinations.
- Students write the words they make on the lines provided below.
- Ensure comprehension by asking students to identify the read words and use them in an oral sentence or sketch a picture.
- More words can be created than the number of lines provided. For students who are capable of productively continuing to create additional words, the Extension Page can be copied and provided.
- If students struggle to write the words onto the handwriting lines, scaffold them by providing the Sound Boxes in a plastic sleeve with a dry erase marker. The Sound Boxes offer support for writing the individual sounds, and the words can then be copied onto the handwriting lines. Another option, if slightly less support is needed, is to draw vertical lines on the handwriting lines segmenting them into spaces for sound-spellings.

Note To Teacher

Reviewing the names of images prior to utilizing them in activities is typically prudent. However, in this section, only images familiar to students are utilized and it is likely review will not be necessary.

BINGO

Students can apply learned sound/spelling knowledge from Unit 3 to read words as they play the traditional game BINGO. Here, the game is tailored appropriately for students' developmental level with only three spaces across, down, or diagonal.

- The word cards needed to copy and cut out are provided following the game boards. We recommend copying and cutting the boards and word cards from card stock to allow for reuse.
- Any collection of tokens can be used for students to cover spaces on their game boards (e.g., cubes, beans, tiles, etc.).
 - As word cards are selected and read, students search for the word on their game board.
 - Ask students to put their finger on the word if they find it and read it aloud to confirm they are correct before covering the space.
- When students are incorrect, use the opportunity to address the confusion.
- When students are correct ask, “How did you know that was _____?” (This verbalization of knowledge or strategies used is powerful for reinforcing learning.)
- The game may be played until one or all students get three spaces covered in a row, or until one or all students get “black-out” (covering the entire board).

Race to the Top

- Each student gets their own ladder game board and game piece, and will share a set of game cards. (We recommend copying and cutting the images from card stock to allow for reuse.)
- Students perform according to the cards used and game variation chosen. For correct answers students move up a rung; for incorrect answers students fall down a rung. The first one who gets to the top wins.
- Using Letter Cards: Cards can be placed face down between the students.
 - Give the Sound: As Letter Cards are flipped over, students provide the correct sound.
 - Give the Word: As Letter Cards are flipped over, students provide a word starting with the sound.
- Using Word/Picture Cards: Cards should be concealed and drawn from a container, such as a brown bag.
 - Read It: As cards are drawn, the word side of the card is shown to the opposing player to be read. The picture side allows for confirmation/correction.
 - Spell It: As cards are drawn, the picture side of the card is shown to the opposing player to be spelled (e.g., on a dry erase board). The word side allows for confirmation/correction.

Memory

Provide students with a set of cards which include some with words and others with the corresponding images for those words (Word/Picture Cards). We recommend copying and cutting the images from card stock to allow for reuse. For Memory the images will need to be copied onto darker colored paper, otherwise students can see the images through the paper when they are turned over.

- Model how to mix up the cards, lay them out, and take turns turning pairs over to look for matches.
- The goal is to match the word with its corresponding image.
- As students become comfortable with the game it may be played independently.

Directions: Copy (card stock is recommended to allow for reuse) this page for the game Race to the Top. Students apply sound/spelling knowledge when played with Letter Cards. More complex phonics knowledge is applied when played with Word/Picture Cards. (See directions under Unit 3, Section II, Phonics—Games.)

Phonics—Progress Monitoring

For Units 1 and 2 of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring was facilitated by charting general performance levels and scoring unassisted items from the Guided Practice portion of the lessons. For Unit 3 and beyond, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment integrated into instruction. The resources create a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention (RtI). We recommend using the progress monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the target skills for this section of Unit 3. Set schedules for progress monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the target skills is confirmed by a progress monitoring assessment, then teachers can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a progress monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Directions

Preparation: This assessment involves asking individual students to read five words. In addition to Word Reading, assessments for Pseudoword Reading are also included. Pseudoword Reading assessments are provided as an option if you suspect students have memorized some of the words and are using automatic word recognition instead of applying decoding knowledge. This may be the case with students in need of remediation and reteaching who have had extended and repeated opportunities to work with these specific words. Copy the page of words with the corresponding record sheet for the Progress Monitoring Assessment (#1–4) you have selected, and cut out the words.

- Model with the sample item.
- Show the cards to the student one at a time.
- Use the record sheet to record each word as the student reads.
- Place a check next to each word read correctly.

- For misread words, write exactly what students say as the word is sounded out. If students misread a word, prompt them to try to read the word again, letting them know their first attempt was incorrect.
- Students may benefit from the supports utilized during instruction such as blending motions and representing sounds with objects (e.g., Push & Say). Demonstrate and encourage their use during modeling with the sample item if needed. The goal is for students to eventually be capable of completing the tasks without physical supports or, at least, utilizing the supports independently (without your prompt).
- Scoring: Scoring is based on one point assigned for every sound read correctly in a word. Interpret scores as follows:
 - 14–15 points—excellent
 - 11–13 points—good
 - 8–10 points—fair
 - Less than 8 points—poor
- Further analyze student errors to determine whether there are one or more individual letter-sound correspondences that are particularly problematic. The subtotals for each sound-spelling at the bottom of the record sheets facilitate the identification of specific problem areas.
- Also examine whether there are mispronunciations occurring more frequently in a given position in words. For example, does the student read the initial sound correctly, but misread the medial and/or final sound?
- Finally, examine whether the student succeeded in reading words correctly on the second attempt. If so, the student may be rushing and may benefit from explicit instruction to slow down and look at each letter in a word sequentially, left to right.
- Goal: Achieve scores of good or excellent.
- Scores of 10 or less indicate additional re-teaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 3 Section II: Phonics.

Methods for Practicing Letter Formation

Gross motor abilities tend to develop before fine motor abilities. Therefore, the following chart provides options allowing you to meet students at their motor ability level and steps to foster their fine motor development. If students struggle to improve their fine motor skills, consult with support staff (e.g., occupational therapist, school nurse, etc.) to evaluate for other potential physical obstacles.

Refining Steps (Gross to Fine Motor)	Surfaces	Methods
Step 1	Large vertical surfaces	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Classroom dry erase board or chalkboard Easel Chart paper taped to the wall Implements such as a paintbrush with water on the chalkboard supports large strokes. Implements such as crayons on easel paper encourage more refined strokes.
Step 2	Large horizontal surfaces	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Table or desk covered with paper Cookie sheet with rice or shaving cream Sand table/box Poster board Full newspaper sheet Using the pointer finger in rice, shaving cream, or sand supports large strokes. Refined strokes are encouraged by using the tripod grip with implements: drawing with the point of a paintbrush in rice, shaving cream, or sand and using crayons and markers on paper.
Step 3	Medium horizontal surfaces	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Large construction paper Legal size paper Brown grocery bag Folded/cut newspaper sheet
Step 4	Small horizontal surfaces (large strokes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 8.5 x 11 paper plain or in a plastic sheet protector sleeve* Individual dry erase boards or chalkboards Small construction paper Notepads Paper plates
Step 5	Small horizontal surfaces (small strokes)	Same as Step 4. Instead of using the full surface for large strokes, students draw small strokes: tracing or free form, filling in shapes, on lines, etc.

*Dry erase markers and an eraser (tissue, sock, other cloth) can be used to write and erase on plastic sleeves, allowing students to reuse worksheets or other practice pages.

Lowercase Letter Formation—Worksheets

Lowercase Letter Formation Practice

Familiar practice formats used in the Unit 3 Workbook are available here to provide large, medium, and small letter formation practice for each of the letter sound spellings: 'm' > /m/, 'a' > /a/, 't' > /t/, 'd' > /d/, 'o' > /o/, 'c' > /k/, 'g' > /g/, and 'i' > /i/.

To promote the meaning link between letter formations as a representation of speech sounds, encourage students to say the lowercase letter formation chant or the letter sound each time they draw a picture of a target sound while completing the worksheets for practice.

Lowercase Letter Formation—Games

Tic-Tac-Toe

Use the template provided, or draw your own, for students to play Tic-Tac-Toe using pictures of target letter sounds instead of the traditional X and O. Students may use both the same target picture of a letter sound and draw it in different colors, or students may use two different target pictures of letter sounds.

To promote the meaning link between letter formations as a representation of speech sounds, encourage students to say the lowercase letter formation chant or the letter sound each time they draw a lowercase letter formation while playing Tic-Tac-Toe

Letter Hunt

Finding familiar pictures of target letter sounds reinforces letter formation knowledge. Use the following activities to have students hunt for taught letter formations.

- Alphabet Mural 1 and 2. Mural 2 provides a greater challenge by mixing familiar letter formations with unfamiliar letter formations.
- Read Around the Room: Invite students to find target letter formations in text around the room. Wearing funny glasses and/or using a fun pointer makes this activity even more engaging!

Lowercase Letter Formation—Fine Motor Activities

Variations for Practicing

- Draw in trays of sand, rice, or shaving cream.
- Draw shapes on vertical surfaces: paper taped to the wall or easel, dry erase board, or chalkboard. (A damp sponge can be used for drawing practice on a chalkboard.)
- Put hair gel with food coloring or glitter in a sandwich bag. Force all the air out and seal tightly. Place the bag on a flat surface and practice letters. Squish the gel flat again to use repeatedly.
- Draw with doodle programs on touch screen technologies.

Other Fine Motor Activity Suggestions

- Building with blocks
- Pouring water from a pitcher to a cup
- Cutting and pasting
- Hole punching
- Stringing beads
- Lacing hole-punched cards
- Making shapes with playdough
- Playing with squirt bottles
- Screwing and unscrewing lids
- Popping bubble wrap using the thumb and pointer finger
- Using a turkey baster or nasal aspirator to blow ping pong balls back and forth
- Using tongs or tweezers to pick up small objects (e.g., place colored buttons or stones on matching colored papers or in matching colored containers, count marshmallows or pom-poms into ice cube trays)
- Adding and removing clothespins to fill the edge of paper, a box, a ruler, etc. or hanging items on a line
- Putting beans in a container with an appropriately sized slot
- Threading pipe cleaners through the holes of a colander
- Turning over buttons spread on the floor or table
- Using eye droppers with water and food coloring to decorate coffee filters

Lowercase Letter Formation—Progress Monitoring

For Units 1 and 2 of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring was facilitated by charting general performance levels and scores on unassisted items from the Guided Practice portion of the lessons. For Unit 3 and beyond, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment that is integrated into instruction. The resources create a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention (RtI). We recommend teachers use the progress monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the target skills for this section of Unit 3. Set schedules for progress monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the target skills is confirmed by a progress monitoring assessment, then teachers can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a progress monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Directions

Preparation: Copy the lowercase letter formation assessment corresponding to the progress monitoring assessment you have selected. The assessment is two pages.

- Distribute Lowercase Letter Formation Progress Monitoring Worksheet (1–4).
- Provide each student with a small piece of crayon.
- Model with the sample item (heart).
- Tell students to copy each stroke in the box provided. (Remind them to continue to the second page.)

- Scoring: Designate how well matched student attempts are to a target letter formation using Not Yet Progressing (NYP), Progressing (P), and Ready (R).
 - NYP: The letter formation has some directionality and appropriate shape; however, the student attempt would not be recognizable without the reference letter.
 - P: The letter formation is recognizable and contains all essential features (e.g., number of lines, curves, points, intersections); however, some lines may not touch or close, extra strokes may be used in the attempt, and it may lack symmetry.
 - R: The letter formation reflects appropriate proportions, symmetry, closures, etc.; however, lines may still be shaky.
 - Goal: Achieve Ready on all lowercase letter formations.
 - Scores of Progressing or Ready indicate additional re-teaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 3 Section III, Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation.
