Unit 4

Instructional Planning

Planning instruction with the Assessment and Remediation Guide is guided by:

- observation of student performance during instruction from the Kindergarten Teacher’s Guide lessons.
- student scores on performance assessments throughout the Kindergarten units.
- progress monitoring assessments from the Assessment and Remediation Guide.

Step 1: Use the Cross-Reference Charts and Determining Student Need flow charts provided for each component (i.e., Phonological Awareness, Phonics, Comprehension, and Writing) within the unit. The Cross-Reference Chart helps you consider student performance across the lessons and with any Pause Points utilized. Instructional activities are organized by unit objectives. Therefore, if students struggled significantly with activities from particular rows of the chart, the unit objective to target is indicated in the first column. The Determining Student Need flow chart prompts you to additionally consider student assessment performance.

Step 2: If a need for remediation is indicated, refer to the Kindergarten Skills Scope and Sequence (provided in the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide Introduction) to consider whether remedial instruction may need to begin at an earlier unit.

Step 3: Consider student’s Level of Instructional Need. A description of the three Levels of Instructional Need is provided in the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide Introduction. Establishing a level of instructional need will direct you to a corresponding lesson structure provided at the beginning of each unit.

Step 4: Select exercises and assessments and prepare associated materials for instruction and progress monitoring.

Step 5: Use ongoing evaluation of student instructional performance and progress monitoring to facilitate decisions about student progress or ongoing remediation needs.

Thoughtful observation of daily performance, integrating assessment with instruction, and providing targeted remediation as quickly as possible will help most struggling Kindergarten students become successful Kindergarten students!

Lesson Structures for Levels of Instructional Need

The Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide will serve students who:

- may enter Kindergarten with known literacy skill educational needs requiring instruction beyond the Skills strand Teacher Guide lessons.
- may have significant instructional needs identified by the student performance assessments throughout the Kindergarten units.
- may complete some Kindergarten units yet demonstrate a lack of preparedness for subsequent units.

Depending on the severity of student instructional need, instructional personnel available, and student grouping options, materials from the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide may be used for:

- guided reinforcement.
- explicit reteaching.
- comprehensive reteaching.

The Lesson Templates within each section provide a detailed model the sequence of instructional steps to be followed when reteaching the particular skill(s) targeted in that section. The Lesson Templates are followed by a Sample Remedial Lesson illustrating how specific skill work, activities, and progress monitoring can be applied to the template. You will find the following Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structures aligns with the Lesson Templates and Sample Remedial Lessons from each section. The Guided Reinforcement Lesson Structure provide guidance for how to make more abbreviated use of the Lesson Templates and Sample Remedial Lessons, and the Comprehensive Reteaching Structure illustrates how to make more complete use of the Lesson Templates and Sample Remedial Lessons from across sections.

Guided Reinforcement Lesson Structure

The Guided Reinforcement Lesson Structure provides guidance for how to use only the supported practice elements from the Lesson Templates. This structure provides an abbreviated lesson geared for reinforcing developing skills not yet mastered.

Guided Reinforcement	Exercise	Materials	Minutes
Warm-Up	See corresponding section Lesson Templates for Warm-Up activity descriptions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three): Thumbs-Up Review</li> <li>• For Phonics: Match Me</li> <li>• For Comprehension: I'm Looking For...</li> <li>• For Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation: Handwriting Warm-Up</li> </ul>	activity dependent	3
Guided Practice (applying skills)	See corresponding sections to choose one or two activities from Worksheets, Games, or Poems/Songs/ Nursery Rhymes for instruction related to remedial targets within: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three)</li> <li>• Phonics</li> <li>• Comprehension (Rereading text to apply familiar Thinking with Reading techniques)</li> <li>• Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation</li> </ul>	activity dependent	12

Note: Progress monitoring related to instruction from Guided Reinforcement lessons may be integrated within instructional times other than these brief remedial lessons, or remedial instructional time may be devoted to completed progress monitoring as needed.

Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structure

The Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structure aligns with the Lesson Templates. This structure provides a more complete lesson geared for explicit instruction for selected unit objectives.

Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson Structure

The Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson Structure also aligns with the Lesson Templates. This structure provides a more instructional time allowing for integration of activities from multiple sections when multiple unit objectives are targets for remediation.

Comprehensive Reteaching	Exercise	Materials	Minutes
Warm-Up	See corresponding section Lesson Templates for Warm-Up activity descriptions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three): Thumbs-Up Review</li> <li>• For Phonics: Match Me</li> <li>• For Comprehension: I'm Looking For...</li> <li>• For Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation: Handwriting Warm-Up</li> </ul>	activity dependent	3

Guided Practice (applying skills)	See corresponding sections to choose one or two activities from Worksheets, Games, or Poems/Songs/ Nursery Rhymes for instruction related to remedial targets within: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (two or three)</li> <li>• Phonics</li> <li>• Comprehension (Read with Purpose and Understanding cont.)</li> <li>• Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation</li> </ul>	activity dependent	12
Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring	Activities with which students have demonstrated independence may engage students when progress monitoring with individuals is needed.	activity dependent  Progress Monitoring resources	10

Note: If a single remedial instruction session does not allow enough time to complete the Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson, then the instruction can be divided over two instructional sessions instead. A split lesson structure may look like this:

Session 1	Session 2
Warm-Up Explicit Instruction Guided Practice (working with skills) Initiate Guided Practice (applying skills)	Warm-Up Explicit Instruction Continue Guided Practice (applying skills) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring

A single objective should be the primary focus of any given remedial instruction session. If you are using the Comprehensive Reteaching lesson structure and students are in need of explicit instruction related to multiple components (i.e., Phonological Awareness, Phonics, Comprehension, and Writing), then rotate the focus selected for Explicit Instruction and the related Guided Practice (working with skills) throughout a series of sessions. A rotating focus may look like this:

Session 1	Session 2	Session 3	Session 4
Warm-Up: Phonics focus Explicit Instruction: Phonics focus Guided Practice (working with skills): Phonics focus Guided Practice (applying skills): Combination from component areas (e.g., a Phonics and a Writing activity) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring: Writing activity (observing for success independently)	Warm-Up: Comprehension focus Explicit Instruction: Comprehension focus Guided Practice (working with skills): Comprehension focus Guided Practice (applying skills): Combination from component areas (e.g., a Phonics and a Comprehension activity) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring: Phonics progress monitoring assessment	Warm-Up: Writing focus Explicit Instruction: Writing focus Guided Practice (working with skills): Writing focus Guided Practice (applying skills): Combination from component areas (e.g., a Phonics and a Writing activity) Independent Practice/Progress Monitoring: Continue Phonics progress monitoring assessment	Repeat Sequence (Perhaps sessions focusing on phonological awareness and writing do not occur as frequently as sessions focusing on phonics and comprehension.)

Guide Organization

Instruction from the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide will be most effective when used in either one-on-one or small group settings. Learning is optimized when instruction is facilitated by a teacher with expertise related to literacy instruction. Small teacher to student ratios maximize individual learning, particularly through increased opportunity for immediate (reinforcing or corrective) feedback for each student.

A description of the Basic and Advanced Code taught to student using CKLA materials starting in Kindergarten is provided in the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide Introduction. This description will provide insight and context for how phonics skills are introduced in Kindergarten and taught throughout Grade 1 and Grade 2.

The materials throughout the units are organized into sections by component area (i.e., Phonological Awareness, Phonics, Comprehension, and Writing) and aligned with the objectives from the CKLA Skills strand units. Within the sections you will find:

- Determining Student Need Chart: A chart is supplied for your reference to determine student need for instruction from any given unit and section of the Assessment and Remediation Guide.
- Lesson Template & Sample: The Lesson Templates within each section provide a detailed model of the sequence of instructional steps to be followed when reteaching the particular skill(s) targeted in that section. The Lesson Templates are followed by a Sample Remedial Lesson illustrating how specific skill work, activities, and progress monitoring can be applied to the template. These Lesson Templates and Sample Lessons align with the Explicit Reteaching Lesson Structure described at the beginning of each unit. Guidance for how to adapt the Lesson Templates and Sample Lessons from each section for the Guided Reinforcement or Comprehensive Reteaching Lesson Structure is found at the beginning of each unit.
- Lesson Reference Charts: When applicable, reference charts are provided to help you adjust the difficulty of your lessons, ensuring students are appropriately scaffolded or challenged.
- Dimensions of Difficulty: This chart is provided for your use to accelerate or reduce the task difficulty for students.
- Cross-Reference Charts: The objectives for each section are cross referenced to the lessons and Pausing Points from the CKLA Skills Strand units. The alignment of objectives and activities can be seen at a glance; facilitating coordinated and targeted use of both the Skills strand units and the Assessment and Remediation Guide.
- Word Lists: Collections of words, phrases, or sentences needed for activities are provided. These lists are not intended to be exhaustive or restrictive. This resource is included to facilitate lesson preparation; however, teachers are welcome to use the lists as models for adding words, phrases, or sentences of their own.

- Worksheets: Worksheets may be utilized to facilitate modeling during Explicit Instruction, supervised practice and application of skills during Guided Practice, or reinforcement during Independent Practice.
- Games/Activities: Games and activities are provided inviting students to apply and strengthen the target skills.
- Sentences & Stories for Oral Reading: Decodable Text is provided allowing students to practice the discrete skills taught and creating a bridge for the generalization of those skills to other forms of connected text.
- Poems/Songs/Nursery Rhymes: Poems, songs, and nursery rhymes foster students' love of language. When applicable, related activities are included to provide engaging opportunities for students to play with sounds and words.
- Progress Monitoring: Resources for progress monitoring are included at the end of each section. These tools are intended to facilitate data collection to inform instruction and build a record of student's progress.

Section I

Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three)

Determining Student Need for Section I, Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three)

Segmenting Support!

Note to Teacher

Orally segmenting two or three phonemes is a primary focus of the activities in Unit 3, Section I of the Assessment and Remediation Guide. Unit 4 allows for continued development of this skill. It also provides progress monitoring assessments for evaluating students' ability to apply segmenting with the targeted sound/spellings for Unit 4. Segmenting Support activities may be done in isolation with students who need additional practice or may be incorporated into the Phonological Awareness Lesson Template for this section. A segmenting activity may be used instead of or in addition to the Thumbs-Up Review for the Warm-Up. If students demonstrate the need for more comprehensive instruction with segmenting, access additional resources in Unit 3, Section I of the Assessment and Remediation Guide.

Silly Monster

Use Silly Monster 1–3 to give students practice segmenting phonemes. Students may have met Silly Monster and learned that he talks by breaking the sounds in words apart for syllable activities in Unit 2 of the Assessment and Remediation Guide.

- Provide students with a copy of the selected Silly Monster worksheet.
- Tell students Silly Monster talks by breaking the sounds in words apart. Say: “For example, instead of saying sun, Silly Monster would say, /s//u//n/.”
- Review the names of the depicted items with students.
- Point to a picture and ask students to identify by talking like Silly Monster.
- If students are unable to answer, say the name of the item by stretching out the word (e.g., /sssss-uuuuu-nnnnn/).
- Continue until all the pictures are identified using Silly Monster talk.
- Option: Blocks, beans, tiles, etc., can be used to cover pictures as sounds are identified.

Name: _____

Directions: Point to or name pictures on the page. Students repeat by taking like Silly Monster who breaks words into their individual sounds. (net, egg, sad, fan, zip, pig, ham, pan, map)

Name: _____

Silly Monster 2

Directions: Point to or name pictures on the page. Students repeat by talking like Silly Monster who breaks words into their individual sounds. (fin, hat, sock, van, pot, nap, neck, hen, ill)

Name: _____

Directions: Point to or name pictures on the page. Students repeat by taking like Silly Monster who breaks words into their individual sounds. (pen, head, sit, dog, vet, pig, mop, hip, leg)

Push & Say

Use Sound Boxes one and two to have students represent phonemes with objects. Representing phonemes with objects allows for cognitive focus on discriminating sounds in words before requiring the additional demand of matching letter knowledge to those sounds. This activity is valuable for developing readiness for phonics work.

- Provide the Sound Boxes page and a handful of small objects (e.g., cubes, tiles, beans, buttons, etc.) for each student.
- Tell students you will say words for them to break into their smallest sounds. The boxes and objects will represent individual sounds before they are blended into words.
- If students are unfamiliar with Push & Say, be sure to model with initial words.

Note: Demonstrate the objects being pushed from left to right from the students' perspective, which will be right to left from your perspective if you are sitting across from students."

- Tell students they will not need all the boxes for every word, but they should always start with the first box on the left.
- Say the first word for the students to segment (e.g., fan).
- Students segment the phonemes and push an object into the boxes for each sound (from left to right). Then students run their finger under the boxes (from left to right) as they repeat the blended word.
- If students struggle, say the word again by stretching out the sounds (e.g., /ffff-aaaa-nnnn/).
- Continue with the next word.
- Use Sound Boxes along with your own word list (See Phonemes—Word Lists for suggestions.) or Silly Monster pages.

Note: Though /x/ is a sound combination of /k/ and /s/, it is taught as one sound. You may praise students who recognize /x/ as a sound combination, but they are to treat it as one sound, placing one object in the box to represent the phoneme. Similarly when /qu/ occurs in the initial position of words, praise students who recognize /qu/ as a sound combination of /k/ and /w/, but they are to represent the phoneme with one object in the corresponding box.

Name: _____

Sound Boxes

Directions: Say a two- or three-phoneme word. Students segment the sounds and push an object (from left to right) into the boxes for each phoneme. Then students run their finger under the boxes (from left to right) and repeat the blended word.

Three empty rectangular boxes with blue borders, arranged horizontally, intended for students to segment sounds into.

Oh Nuts!

Preparation: Use the squirrel image and acorn cut-outs provided. You will need one squirrel and enough acorn cut-outs for each student to have at least four. If available in your area, actual acorns could be collected and used! Consider copying the squirrel and acorns on brown card stock. Select a combination of two- and three-phoneme words from the Word Lists. If students perform well with three-phoneme words, they may be challenged with a few four phoneme words by making select words plural (e.g., fan becomes fans: /f//a//n//s/).

- Place the squirrel in the middle of the table and tell students they need to help you feed the squirrel.
- Give each student at least four acorns.
- Tell students you are going to say a word and they should remove one acorn from their pile for each sound in the word.
- Once all students have the correct number of acorns set out, ask individual students to feed the squirrel by saying each sound for the word as they place each acorn on the squirrel. When they are finished they may say, “Oh nuts!”
- As all students “feed the squirrel” the acorns will pile up on the squirrel. Redistribute the acorns for the next sentence.

Name: _____

“Oh Nuts!” (Squirrel)

Directions: See “Oh Nuts!”

Name: _____

“Oh Nuts!” (Acorns)

Flip Your Lid!

Advance Preparation

Collect a number of bottle caps from discarded water or soda bottles. They do not have to be alike and certainly can add more interest if the colors are varied.

Cut off the bottom of a two-liter soda bottle and wash it thoroughly to remove any stickiness.

Select a combination of two- and three-phoneme words from the Word Lists. If students perform well with three-phoneme words, they may be challenged with a few four-phoneme words by making select words plural (e.g., fan becomes fans: /f//a//n//s/).

- Give each student at least four bottle caps.
- Tell students you are going to say a word and they should remove one bottle cap from their pile for each sound in the word.
- Once all students have the correct number of bottle caps set out, ask individual students to say each sound for the word as they gently toss each bottle cap into the soda bottle bottom.
- As all students get a turn the bottle bottom will fill up with bottle caps. Redistribute the bottle caps for the next word.

Construction Time!

Advance Preparation

Gather a collection of any variety of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).

Select a combination of two- and three-phoneme words from the Word Lists. If students perform well with three-phoneme words, they may be challenged with a few four-phoneme words by making select words plural (e.g., fan becomes fans: /f//a//n//s/).

- Give each student at least four blocks.
- Tell students you are going to say a word and they should remove one block from their pile for each sound in the word.
- Once all students have the correct number of blocks set out, ask individual students to say each sound for the word as they place each block, building a collective structure as the game continues.
- Supply a few new blocks to each student for each successive word.

Dimensions of Difficulty

Lessons can be crafted to be more or less difficult by varying the target position when listening for phonemes in a word and the type of phoneme contrasts examined. The chart below illustrates how lessons can be designed to be more or less challenging across both dimensions.

Least Difficult	Contrast Phonemes with Distinct Articulation Features (e.g., /s/ and /e/)	Contrast Phonemes with Similar Articulation Features (e.g., minimal pairs /f/ and /v/)
Skill
Isolate a sound in the initial position
Isolate a sound in the medial position		Most Difficult

Articulation Chart

Refer to this chart for Warm-Up activities or at any other time when reviewing articulation would clarify letter-sound knowledge for students. Often students who struggle with the sound information of phonemes are supported by knowledge of the mechanical (i.e., physical) aspects of phonemes. For example, if students struggle to hear the difference between /t/ and /d/, they can rely on recognizing whether their voice is on or off to help identify the phoneme. Additional information other than material students learned in the Skills Strand Lessons is noted in italic.

New Phonemes

Phoneme	Articulation Features (Notice in the Mirror)	Is Your Voice On or Off?	Can You Stretch the Sound?
/n/	Tip of the tongue touches the bump behind the upper teeth and lips are open a little (Air goes through your nose! Pinch your nose and you'll cut off the sound.)	On	Yes
/h/	Mouth is open wide and the tongue is low in the front of the mouth as air is forced noisily through the space between the vocal folds	Off	No*
/s/	Front of the tongue cups the roof of the mouth, and lips are open a little as air is forced noisily through the space between (Note this is the same as /z/.)	Off	Yes
/f/	Upper teeth gently touch the lower lip as air is forced noisily through the space between (Note this is the same as /v/.)	Off	Yes
/v/	Upper teeth gently touch the lower lip as air is forced noisily through the space between (Note this is the same as /f/.)	On	Yes
/z/	Front of the tongue cups the roof of the mouth, and lips are open a little as air is forced noisily through the space between (Note this is the same as /s/.)	On	Yes
/p/	Lips are pressed together and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /b/.)	Off	No*
/e/	Mouth is open wide and jaw is in a middle/neutral position (For /i/ & /a/ the jaw is higher and for /o/ the jaw is lower.)	On	Yes

Previously Taught Phonemes

Phoneme	Articulation Features (Notice in the Mirror)	Is Your Voice On or Off?	Can You Stretch the Sound?
/m/	Lips are together (Air goes through your nose! Pinch your nose and you'll cut off the sound.)	On	Yes
/a/	Mouth is open wide and the tongue is low in the front of the mouth	On	Yes
/t/	Tip of the tongue taps behind the upper teeth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /d/.)	Off	No*
/d/	Tip of the tongue taps behind the upper teeth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /t/.)	On	No*
/o/	Mouth is open wide and jaw is lower than for /a/	On	Yes
/k/	Back of the tongue touches the roof of the mouth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /g/.)	Off	No*
/g/	Back of the tongue touches the roof of the mouth, lips are open a little, and the air "pops" out (Note this is the same as /k/.)	On	No*
/i/	Mouth is open wide and jaw is higher than for /a/	On	Yes

Note: To check for voicing, put your hand on your throat as you make a letter-sound. If your voice is ON you will feel it vibrate!

*Plosive sounds are difficult to pronounce in isolation making it tempting to add a short vowel sound after the consonant sound (e.g., /buh/ instead of /b/). When you teach these sounds, make an effort to keep the sounds as clipped as possible.

Minimal Pairs

- /n/ and /m/ are minimal pairs because they are both nasal sounds (air goes through the nose) and only differ by articulation features.
- /s/ and /z/ are minimal pairs because the only difference is whether the voice is on or off.
- /f/ and /v/ are minimal pairs because the only difference is whether the voice is on or off.
- /e/, /a/, /o/, and /i/ are minimal pairs because the only difference is the degree to which the mouth is open. Producing the vowel sounds in this order: /i/, /a/, /e/, /o/ allows you to best feel the increased opening for each new vowel sound.

Phonemes—Worksheets

Sound Boxes: Identify the Position

---

Use Sound Boxes to have students indicate the position (initial, medial, or final) of targeted sounds in two- and three-phoneme words.

- Provide a worksheet for each student.
- Say a target sound and word using the sentence frame: Where is /_/ in the word _____? For example: Where is /e/ in the word hen?
- Students repeat the word and segment the sounds, touching the boxes from left to right for each phoneme.
- Then students place a cube (or other object: beans, buttons, etc.) in the box matching the position of the targeted sound.

Note: Though /x/ is a sound combination of /k/ and /s/ it is taught as one sound. You may praise students who recognize /x/ as a sound combination, but they are to treat it as one sound, placing one object in the box to represent the phoneme. Similarly, when /qu/ occurs in the initial position of words, praise students who recognize /qu/ as a sound combination of /k/ and /w/, but they are to represent the phoneme with one object in the corresponding box.

Name: _____

Sound Boxes: Phonological Awareness

Phonemes—Games

Target Sounds

The following games should be restricted to the targeted sounds:
/n/, /h/, /s/, /f/, /v/, /z/, /p/, and /e/.

Give Me a Word

Gather a collection of any variety of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).

- Tell students you will provide a sound and want them to say a word containing the sound. For example: Give me a word starting with /f/. (If students struggle to think of a word, prompt them to look around the room for objects starting with the target sound.)
- As students provide words containing the targeted phoneme, give them a block. With each block students get a turn to place it, building a collective structure as the game continues.

Give Me the Sound

This is a variation of Give Me a Word (above).

Gather a collection of any variety of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).

- Tell students you will provide a word and want them to say the sound at the beginning of the word. For example: Give me the sound at the beginning of fan. (If students struggle to identify the beginning sound, repeat the word with the beginning sound drawn out: fffffffan.)
- As students provide beginning sounds, give them a block. With each block students get a turn to place it, building a collective structure as the game continues.
- If successful with identifying beginning sounds, students could play this game by identifying sounds in the medial (vowels) or final position of words.

Picture Cards

Picture Cards are provided for use with the following games.

/n/	/h/	/s/	/f/	/p/	/e/
net	hat	sock	fan	pig	leg
nose	ham	sit	fish	pin	jet
nut	hen	sun	five	pan	bed
knee	home	sail	foot	pear	web

- The following games should target sounds in the initial and medial position and focus on the new target sounds: /n/, /h/, /s/, /f/, /p/, and /e/. However, picture cards may be reused from Unit 3 if contrasts including /m/, /a/, /t/, /d/, /o/, /k/, /g/, or /i/ are desired.
- Contrast combinations should be targeted according to student readiness (see Dimensions of Difficulty).
- We recommend copying and cutting the images from card stock to allow for reuse. For Memory the images will need to be copied onto darker colored paper, otherwise students can see the images through the paper when they are turned over.

Isolating Sounds (Receptive)

- Lay out the picture cards for two to four targeted sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Ask students to find a picture of something with the /_ / sound in the beginning/middle.

Isolating Sounds (Expressive)

- Lay out the picture cards for two to four targeted sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Ask students to tell you the beginning/middle sound for a selected picture. (Scaffold this activity by naming the picture. If additional support is needed, segment the sounds for students.)

Closed Sorts

- Provide picture cards for two to four target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Tell students which target sounds they need to listen for to help them sort the pictures.
- Complete the sorting with the appropriate level of support.
- Once the pictures are sorted, have students identify the sound for each category and name the pictures in each group to recheck their sort.
- A variation is the Speed Sort, in which you time students so they can race against themselves to get their best time.

Open Sorts

- Provide picture cards for two to four target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Ask students to decide how to sort the pictures into groups according to beginning or vowel sounds.
- Once the pictures are sorted, have students identify the sound for each category and name the pictures in each group to recheck their sort.

Memory

- Provide picture cards for two to four target sounds.
- Review the names of all pictures.
- Model how to mix up the cards, lay them out, and take turns turning pairs over to look for matches.
- The goal is to match for the targeted sounds, such as two words that begin with /p/.
- As students become comfortable with the game they may be able to play independently.

Directions: Copy (darker colored card stock is recommended) and cut these Picture Cards for use with the Unit 4 Section 1 activities: Isolating Sounds, Sorts, and Memory. See directions for each under Phonemes – Games.

Phonemes—Poems/Songs/Nursery Rhymes (P/S/NR)

Alliteration

---

Recite either of the following poems changing the alliteration for “Wee Willie Winkie” or “Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater” to a Unit 4 targeted consonant sound: /n/, /h/, /s/, /f/, /v/, /z/, or /p/. For example: Hee Hillie Hinkie runs through the town. Ask students to listen for your mixed-up beginning sound and tell you the mixed-up sound they heard (e.g., /h/).

- “Wee Willie Winkie” (P/S/NR Resource 24)
- “Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater” (P/S/NR Resource 25)

Directions: Ask students to listen for the mixed-up beginning sound in Wee Willie Winkie's name as you recite the poem changing the /w/ in the name to a Unit 4 consonant target sound: /m/, /h/, /s/, /f/, /v/, /z/, or /p/.

Wee Willie Winkie

Wee Willie Winkie runs through the town,
Upstairs and downstairs in his nightgown,
Rapping at the window, crying through the lock:
Are all the children in their beds? It's past eight o'clock!

Directions: Ask students to listen for the mixed-up beginning sound in Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater as you recite the poem changing the /p/ to a Unit 4 consonant target sound: /n/, /h/, /s/, /f/, /v/, /z/, or /p/.

Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater,
Had a wife and couldn't keep her.
He put her in a pumpkin shell
And there he kept her very well.

Phonemes—Progress Monitoring

As in previous units of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment integrated into instruction. The resources create a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention. We recommend you use the Progress Monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the targeted skills for this section of Unit 4. Set schedules for Progress Monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the targeted skills is confirmed by a Progress Monitoring assessment, then you can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a Progress Monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Segmenting

Preparation: Copy Sound Boxes and the Record Sheet for the Segmenting Progress Monitoring Assessment (#1–4) you have selected. Also gather a collection of small objects to use for Push & Say with the Sound Boxes (cubes, beans, buttons, etc.).

- Provide students with Sound Boxes and at least three small objects.
- Tell students you are going to say a word. Students should repeat the word, break the word into its sounds pushing an object into the boxes (from left to right) for each phoneme, and finish by running their finger (from left to right) under the boxes to say the whole word again.
- Model with the sample item.
- Say the first word and record student responses on the Record Sheet.
- Continue with the remaining words.

- Scoring: Scoring is based on one point assigned for every sound in a word which is segmented correctly. Interpret scores as follows:
  - 14–15 points—excellent
  - 11–13 points—good
  - 8–10 points—fair
  - Less than 8 points—poor
- Further analyze student errors to determine whether any individual letter-sounds are particularly problematic. The subtotals for each phoneme at the bottom of the Record Sheets facilitate the identification of specific problem areas.
- Also examine whether there are errors occurring more frequently in a given position in words. For example, does the student consistently segment the initial sound correctly and often reverse the medial and final phonemes?
- Finally, examine whether the student succeeded in segmenting words correctly on a second attempt. If so, the student may be rushing and may benefit from explicit instruction to slow down.
- Goal: Achieve scores of Good or Excellent.
- Scores of 10 or less indicate additional reteaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 4 Section I, Phonological Awareness: Segmenting Support! or possibly Unit 3 Section I, Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three).

Isolating Target Sounds in the Initial, Final or Medial Position

Preparation: Copy the page of pictures corresponding to the Progress Monitoring Assessment (#1–4) you have selected.

- Review the names of all pictures first.
- Tell students you are going to say two words at a time. The words will be very similar, but one will have a sound we are listening for.

Ask students:

- “Which picture begins with the /_ / sound?” (for beginning consonants)
- Or “Which picture has the /_ / sound in the middle?” (for medial vowels)
- Students should circle the matching picture on the worksheet.
- Model with the sample item.
- Prompt students to look at the next row of pictures and circle the picture with the target sound.
- Work through the remaining rows.

- Scoring: One point is awarded for each correctly identified picture.
  - Goal: 4 or 5 correct.
  - Scores of 3 or less indicate additional reteaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 4, Section I, Phonological Awareness: Phonemes (Two or Three).

Dimensions of Difficulty

Lessons can be crafted to be more or less difficult by varying the salience (i.e., sound clarity) of phonemes and the type of phoneme contrasts that are examined. The chart below illustrates how lessons can be designed to be more or less challenging across both dimensions.

Least Difficult	Contrast Phonemes with Distinct Articulation Features (e.g., /s/ and /e/)	Contrast Phonemes with Similar Articulation Features (e.g., minimal pairs /f/ and /v/)
Phonemes
Consonants with Continuous Sound (i.e., can be stretched) /n/, /s/, /f/, /v/, and /z/
Consonants with Plosive Sound (i.e., cannot be stretched) /h/ and /p/
Vowels /e/		Most Difficult

New Sound/Spellings with Chart

Consonants	Short Vowels

Note: Pseudowords are often included in the chains, especially at this early stage when the number of real words that can be read or spelled is limited. Spelling pseudowords also forces students to solely use phonics knowledge because they cannot rely on memorized spelling. You may wish to point out a word that is not real or ask students to identify when a silly word is included.

Review the Sound/Spelling

Review the target sound/spellings from Unit 4 with these worksheets.

- The image of the girl pronouncing the target sound is provided to prompt attention to the articulation of the sound (See the Articulation Chart in Section I). The word provided is an exemplar allowing students to listen for the target sound within a word.
- Letter formation arrows are also provided for the picture of each sound, which can serve as a reference when writing and/or as tracing practice if used with a clear plastic sleeve and dry erase marker.
- A few items are revisited from the Meet the Spelling worksheets of Unit 4 to prompt students to listen for the target sound and practice its letter formation.

Push & Say

Use Sound Boxes to have students build words with support for individual sounds.

- Provide each student with the Sound Boxes page and a set of letter cards corresponding to the words selected for building. Multiple copies of consonants are needed for words such as sis and pop.
- Say a word, such as hat.
- Students echo the word and then individually work to select the Letter Cards for the sound/spellings identified as they segment the word into phonemes.
- Have students place the Letter Cards directly below the boxes in the correct positions from left to right. Tell students they will not always use all the Sound Boxes.
- Once you see a student is ready, ask him or her to push the cards into the boxes from left to right and say the sound as he or she pushes each card. Immediately, students should run their finger under the word in one smooth motion and say the whole word blended.
- Clear the board for the next word.

Sound Boxes can be used in varied ways:

- Select words from the Phonics—Word Lists for students to practice building and blending targeted sound/spellings.
- Students who struggle to write the words from the Making Words activities in this section may be supported by building in Sound Boxes first and then copying the word onto the handwriting lines.
- Sound Boxes may also support students during Chaining activities. For reading the teacher may build or write sound/spellings in the boxes to help highlight the positions of phonemes, particularly helping to focus student attention to the correct position as spellings change to form a new word. Similarly, for spelling students may build or write sound/spellings in the boxes for support as they break apart and record the phonemes they hear in words.
- If additional support is needed, first practice by asking students to flip their Letter Cards over to the blank side and Push & Say for a few practice words using the blank side of the cards. This removes the component of identifying the correct sound/spelling, allowing students to start with a focus on the sounds and their positions before adding the task of connecting the sounds to spellings.

Making Words

Students reinforce phonics knowledge by making words.

- Select a Making Words page according to the sound-spellings targeted for remediation.
  - Pages 1–10 offer the highest level of support by having students make words by manipulating the sound in the initial position only.
  - Pages 11–14 have students make words by manipulating the sound in the initial and final position.
- Model how to use the letters surrounding the center box to make words.
- Tracing the path of letters may support students as they attempt sound-spelling combinations.
- Students write the words they make on the lines provided below.
- Ensure comprehension by asking students to identify the read words and use them in an oral sentence or sketch a picture.
- More words can be created than the number of lines provided. For students who are capable of productively continuing to create additional words, the Extension Page can be copied and provided.
- If students struggle to write the words onto the handwriting lines, scaffold them by providing the Sound Boxes in a plastic sleeve with a dry erase marker. The Sound Boxes offer support for writing the individual sounds, and the words can then be copied onto the handwriting lines. Another option, if slightly less support is needed, is to draw vertical lines on the handwriting lines segmenting them into spaces for sound-spellings.

Phonics—Games

Note to Teacher

Reviewing the names of images prior to utilizing them in activities is typically prudent. However, in this section, only images familiar to students are utilized and it is likely review will not be necessary.

BINGO

Students apply learned sound/spelling knowledge from Unit 4 to read words as they play the traditional game BINGO. Here the game is tailored appropriately for students' developmental level with only three spaces across, down, or diagonal.

- The word cards needed to copy and cut out are provided following the game boards. We recommend copying and cutting the boards and word cards from card stock to allow for reuse.
- Any collection of tokens can be used for students to cover spaces on their game boards (e.g., cubes, beans, tiles, etc.).
  - As word cards are selected and read, students search for the word on their game board.
  - Ask students to put their finger on the word if they find it and read it aloud to confirm they are correct before covering the space.
- When students are incorrect, use the opportunity to address the confusion.
- When students are correct ask, “How did you know that was _____?” (This verbalization of knowledge or strategies is powerful for reinforcing learning.)
- The game can be played until one or all students get three spaces covered in a row, or until one or all students get “black-out” (covering the entire board).

Race to the Top

- Each student gets their own ladder, game board, and game piece but will share a set of game cards. (We recommend copying and cutting the game cards from card stock to allow for reuse.)
- Students perform according to the cards used and game variation chosen. For correct answers students move up a rung; for incorrect answers students fall down a rung. The first one who gets to the top wins.
- Letter Cards can be placed face down between students.
  - Give the Sound: As letter cards are flipped over, students provide the correct sound.
  - Give the Word: As letter cards are flipped over, students provide a word starting with the sound.
- Word/Picture Cards should be concealed and drawn from a container, such as a brown bag.
  - Read It: As cards are drawn, the word side of the card is shown to the opposing player to be read. The picture side allows for confirmation/correction.
  - Spell It: As cards are drawn, the picture side of the card is shown to the opposing player to be spelled (e.g., on a dry erase board). The word side allows for confirmation/correction.

Memory

Provide students with a set of cards, which include some with words and others with the corresponding images for those words (Word/Picture Cards). We recommend copying and cutting the images from card stock to allow for reuse. For Memory the images will need to be copied onto darker colored paper, otherwise students can see the images through the paper when they are turned over.

- Model how to mix up the cards, lay them out, and take turns turning pairs over to look for matches.
- The goal is to match the word with its corresponding image.
- As students become comfortable with the game it may be played independently.

Phonics—Progress Monitoring

As in previous units of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment integrated into instruction. The resources create a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention (RtI). We recommend teachers use the Progress Monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the targeted skills for this section of Unit 4. Set schedules for Progress Monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the targeted skills is confirmed by a Progress Monitoring assessment, then teachers can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a Progress Monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Directions

Preparation: This assessment involves asking individual students to read seven words. In addition to Word Reading, assessments for Pseudoword Reading are also included. Pseudoword Reading assessments are provided as an option if teachers suspect students have memorized some of the words and are using automatic word recognition instead of applying decoding knowledge. This may be the case with students in need of remediation and reteaching who have had extended and repeated opportunities to work with these specific words. Copy the page of words with the Record Sheet corresponding to the Progress Monitoring Assessment (Word Reading or Pseudoword Reading 1–4) you have selected, and cut out the words.

- Model with the sample item.
- Show the cards to the student one at a time.
- Use the Record Sheet to record student responses.
- Place a check next to each word read correctly.
- For misread words, write exactly what students say as the word is sounded out. If students misread a word, prompt them to try to read the word again, letting them know their first attempt was incorrect.
- Students may benefit from the supports utilized during instruction such as blending motions and representing sounds with objects (e.g., Push & Say). Demonstrate and encourage their use during modeling with the sample item if needed. The goal is for students to eventually be capable of completing the tasks without physical supports or, at least, utilizing the supports independently (without your prompt).

- Scoring: Scoring is based on one point assigned for every sound in a word that is read correctly. Interpret scores as follows:
  - 14–15 points—excellent
  - 11–13 points—good
  - 8–10 points—fair
  - Less than 8 points—poor
- Further analyze student errors to determine whether individual letter-sound correspondences are particularly problematic. The subtotals for each sound-spelling at the bottom of the Record Sheets facilitate the identification of specific problem areas.
- Also examine whether there are mispronunciations occurring more frequently in a given position in words. For example, does the student read the initial sound correctly, but misread the medial and/or final sound?
- Finally, examine whether the student succeeded in reading words correctly on the second attempt. If so, the student may be rushing and may benefit from explicit instruction to slow down and look at each letter in a word sequentially, left to right.
- Goal: Achieve scores of good or excellent (11 points or higher).
- Scores of 10 or less indicate additional reteaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 4 Section II, Phonics.

Dimensions of Difficulty

Lessons can be crafted to be more or less difficult by varying the level of instructional support for reading and the format of the text. The chart below illustrates how lessons can be designed to be more or less challenging across both dimensions.

Keep in mind students should be engaged in actually reading with eyes on print as much as possible. For the Modeled level of support, the teacher is responsible for reading and students should be encouraged to follow along tracking text. For the Independent level of support, individual engagement is required as students read independently. For the Shared, Interactive, and Scaffolded levels of support, round robin reading, wherein students can “tune out” until it’s their turn, is not recommended. Instead, small groups of students may:

- read aloud with the teacher chorally (all voices together) or echo (all voices repeat).
- read aloud with a partner chorally (voices together) or taking equal turns (e.g., page by page).
- read aloud as a group chorally (all voices together) or individually (voices jumbled as students read at different paces).

Least Difficult		Read from the Book Copy (Includes Illustrations)	Read from a Text Copy (Excludes Illustrations)
Level of Support for Reading	Description
Modeled	Teacher reads aloud with fluency and uses “thinking aloud” to demonstrate application of skills or strategies.
Shared	Teacher and students read together. Students follow along with text and choral (voices together) or echo (voices repeat) read familiar refrains.
Interactive	Teacher and students read together, taking turns. Students read sections with the direct, immediate support of teacher feedback and modeling.
Scaffolded	Teacher plans and delivers lessons related to text. The instruction supports student reading of instructional level text.
Independent	Students read “easy” text that is either at their independent level or is a familiar reread, requiring little to no support from the teacher.		Most Difficult

Thinking with Reading Chart

Revisit Text to Address Basic Text Structures

Using a book copy of Pet Fun, address the basic text structures noted in the Concepts about Print Chart. This should occur during the Warm-Up of lessons, for targeted review with students outside of lessons as needed, and for progress monitoring as students demonstrate readiness for an assessment of Concepts about Print knowledge.

	Thinking with Reading	Description	Specific Application to Pet Fun
Before Reading	Activating Prior Knowledge of Text Structure	Before reading, activate knowledge of basic print structures (e.g., text directionality), general genre structures (e.g., list format within a non-fiction text), or features specific to a text (e.g., table of contents) to establish a foundation that helps students predict and acquire information during reading.	Using a book copy, examine knowledge of Concepts about Print.
	Setting Purpose for Reading	Before reading, use previewed information about the structure and content to inform setting an appropriate purpose for reading the text. The purpose should spark student interest and attention to the reading. The purpose is established in the Explicit instruction section of the lesson and revisited throughout.	Students may read to find out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Who are the animals in the story?</li> <li>• What do each of the animals do?</li> <li>• What happens on the trip to the vet?</li> </ul>

	Thinking with Reading	Description	Specific Application to Pet Fun
During Reading	Monitoring	During reading, stop and think after sections of text to evaluate whether you are understanding the text or not. Students often do not put effort into making meaning while reading without being explicitly taught and reminded to do so. This is especially true of readers who have to devote a great deal of cognitive energy to decoding, and who may be less intrinsically motivated to read. Encourage students to begin sharing their thinking with, “That makes sense because...” Presenting a related scenario that does not make sense may help students engage in this reflection. For example: If the dog went to the vet, first ask, “Does it make sense for a dog to go to the vet?” Then ask, “Would it make sense if the author told us the dog called the vet?” Monitoring helps students self-correct decoding errors. Consider if a student reads “bit ox ran on” instead of “but ox ran on.” If the student is monitoring, he/she may think, “bit ox ran on” doesn’t make sense, prompting review of the text for correction.	The text has four natural sections every four pages. After each section, stop and see if students can recall the story from the section just read.

	Thinking with Reading	Description	Specific Application to Pet Fun
After Reading	Summarizing	After reading, reconstruct an abbreviated version of the text that highlights the big ideas. Students tend to offer specific recall of ideas, often in random order. Prompting students to think about the beginning, middle, and end of early narrative texts can help them structure ideas sequentially. Through discussion, encourage student to connect the details they remember to a big idea for each section, which promotes summarization skills and higher level thinking. For example: In the beginning, there was a cat and a dog and a pig and a hog: We met the four animals in the story	Ask students to tell you about and/or draw a picture representing the big ideas from the three basic sections of text: beginning, middle, and end. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Beginning: meet cat, dog, pig, hog</li> <li>• Middle: cat is in different places and dog goes to the vet</li> <li>• End: pig and hog are together</li> </ul>

Revisit Text to Focus on Content

- Using a book copy or text copy of Pet Fun, focus on Thinking with Reading techniques to accomplish purpose and understanding with the decodable text.
- For use of techniques “during reading” it can be helpful to mark the text at natural stopping points before the lesson. Sticky notes can be put on pages in the book copy and the text copy is provided with the text arranged in sections.

Students should always be exposed to the illustrations for picture books for initial readings, because the illustrations are there for the purpose of enhancing the text. Once the book is familiar, using a text only copy can help focus students on decoding and understanding the text by removing picture support. In early readers offering high text to picture matching, students can learn to avoid reading the text by reading the pictures instead!

Comprehension—Progress Monitoring

As in previous units of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment integrated into instruction. The resources create a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention (RtI). We recommend teachers use the Progress Monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the target skills for this section of Unit 4. Set schedules for Progress Monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the target skills is confirmed by a Progress Monitoring assessment, then teachers can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a Progress Monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Preparation: Use a book copy of Pet Fun or another familiar text (in book format) and gather Record Sheets for each student being assessed. This assessment is most reliable if done individually or in small groups with students seated so they cannot see each other when answering the questions.

- Hand students the book upside down and backwards.
- Begin asking the Concepts about Print questions from the Record Sheet. You may not always need to assess the entire list of Concepts about Print. If students show frustration before the list is complete, discontinue the assessment until a later time. If students have demonstrated mastery on some items, those items do not need to be reassessed for subsequent progress monitoring.
- Record whether students accurately demonstrated the concept or not. Noting the nature of errors will help inform corrective feedback provided after the assessment, as well as selecting target concepts for review during instruction.
- Scoring: Student attempts should be recorded as either accurate or not, using any form of symbols (e.g., checks or Xs).
- Goal: Achieve accurate performance on all Concepts about Print.
- Errors with Concepts about Print indicate additional reteaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 4 Section III, Comprehension.

Record Sheet for Unit 4 Section III, Comprehension

Methods for Practicing Letter Formation

Gross motor abilities tend to develop before fine motor abilities. Therefore, the following chart provides options allowing you to meet students at their motor ability level and steps to encourage their fine motor development. If students struggle to improve their fine motor skills, consult with support staff (e.g., occupational therapist, school nurse, etc.) to evaluate for other potential physical obstacles.

Refining Steps (Gross to Fine Motor)	Surfaces	Methods
Step 1	Large vertical surfaces	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classroom dry erase board or chalkboard</li> <li>• Easel</li> <li>• Chart paper taped to the wall</li> </ul> Implements such as a paintbrush with water on the chalkboard supports large strokes. Implements such as crayons on easel paper encourage more refined strokes.
Step 2	Large horizontal surfaces	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Table or desk covered with paper</li> <li>• Cookie sheet with rice or shaving cream</li> <li>• Sand table/box</li> <li>• Poster board</li> <li>• Full newspaper sheet</li> </ul> Using the pointer finger in rice, shaving cream, or sand supports large strokes. Refined strokes are encouraged by using the tripod grip with implements: drawing with the point of a paintbrush in rice, shaving cream, or sand and using crayons and markers on paper.
Step 3	Medium horizontal surfaces	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Large construction paper</li> <li>• Legal size paper</li> <li>• Brown grocery bag</li> <li>• Folded/cut newspaper sheet</li> </ul>
Step 4	Small horizontal surfaces (large strokes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 8.5 x 11 paper plain or in a plastic sheet protector sleeve*</li> <li>• Individual dry erase boards or chalkboards</li> <li>• Small construction paper</li> <li>• Notepads</li> <li>• Paper plates</li> </ul>
Step 5	Small horizontal surfaces (small strokes)	Same as Step 4. Instead of using the full surface for large strokes, students draw small strokes: tracing or free form, filling in shapes, on lines, etc.

*Dry erase markers and an eraser (tissue, sock, other cloth) can be used to write and erase on plastic sleeves, allowing students to reuse worksheets or other practice pages.

Lowercase Letter Formation Practice:

Familiar practice formats used in the Unit 4 Workbook are available here to provide large, medium, and small letter formation practice for each of the letter sound spellings: 'n' > /n/, 'h' > /h/, 's' > /s/, 'f' > /f/, 'v' > /v/, 'z' > /z/, 'p' > /p/, and 'e' > /e/.

To promote the meaning link between letter formations as a representation of speech sounds, encourage students to say the lowercase letter formation chant or the letter sound each time they draw a picture of a target sound.

Lowercase Letter Formation—Games

Tic-Tac-Toe

---

Use the template provided or draw your own for students to play Tic-Tac-Toe using pictures of target letter sounds instead of the traditional X and O. Both students may use the same target picture of a letter sound and draw it in different colors, or students may use two different target pictures of letter sounds.

To promote the meaning link between letter formations and a representation of speech sounds, encourage students to say the lowercase letter formation chant or the letter sound each time they draw a lowercase letter formation while playing Tic-Tac-Toe.

Letter Hunt

Finding familiar pictures of target letter sounds reinforces letter formation knowledge. Use the following activities to have students hunt for taught letter formations.

- Alphabet Mural 1 and 2 (Alphabet Mural 2 provides a greater challenge by mixing familiar letter formations with unfamiliar letter formations.)
- Read Around the Room: Invite students to find target letter formations in text around the room. Wearing funny glasses and/or using a fun pointer makes this activity even more engaging!

Lowercase Letter Formation—Fine Motor Activities

Variations for Practicing Letter Formations

---

- Draw in trays of sand, rice, or shaving cream.
- Draw shapes on vertical surfaces: paper taped to the wall or easel, dry erase board, or chalkboard. (A damp sponge can be used for cleaner drawing practice on a chalkboard.)
- Mix hair gel with food coloring or glitter in a sandwich bag. Force all the air out and seal tightly. Place the bag on a flat surface and practice letters. Squish the gel flat again to use repeatedly.
- Draw with doodle programs on touch screen technologies.

Other Fine Motor Activity Suggestions

- Building with blocks
- Pouring water from a pitcher to a cup
- Cutting and pasting
- Hole punching
- Stringing beads
- Lacing hole-punched cards
- Making shapes with playdough
- Playing with squirt bottles
- Screwing and unscrewing lids
- Popping bubble wrap using the thumb and pointer finger
- Using a turkey baster or nasal aspirator to blow ping pong balls back and forth
- Using tongs or tweezers to pick up small objects (e.g., place colored buttons or stones on matching colored papers or in matching colored containers, count marshmallows or pom-poms into ice cube trays)
- Adding and removing clothespins to fill the edge of paper, a box, a ruler, etc. or hanging items on a line
- Putting beans in a container with an appropriately sized slot
- Threading pipe cleaners through the holes of a colander
- Turning over coins or buttons spread on the floor or table
- Using eye droppers with water and food coloring to decorate coffee filters

Lowercase Letter Formation—Progress Monitoring

As in previous units of the Assessment and Remediation Guide, progress monitoring continues to be a form of assessment integrated into instruction. The resources create a systematic record of student mastery of skills, facilitating documentation and evaluation of student Response to Intervention (RtI). We recommend teachers use the Progress Monitoring resources provided:

- within the Guided Practice section of the lesson plans. The resources are designed to parallel instructional tasks, allowing for brief, seamless integration. The intention is not to burden instructional time with additional assessments.
- only when, based on observation of instructional performance, students appear to be ready for a comprehensive check of the target skills for this section of Unit 4. Set schedules for Progress Monitoring assessments tend to result in their overuse. The resources are intended to serve as confirmation and meaningful record of student progress, as opposed to a collection of numbers.
- to inform instruction! If student mastery of the target skills is confirmed by a Progress Monitoring assessment, then teachers can be confident in the decision to move students forward. If students do not achieve the goal scores for a Progress Monitoring assessment, analysis of errors will indicate areas of continued instructional need.

Directions:

Preparation: Copy the lowercase letter formation assessment pages corresponding to the Progress Monitoring Assessment (Lowercase Letter Formation 1–4) you have selected (note the assessment is two pages).

- Distribute Lowercase Letter Formation Progress Monitoring pages.
- Provide each student with a small piece of crayon.
- Model with the sample item (heart).
- Tell students to copy each picture in the box provided. (Remind them to continue onto the second page.)

- Scoring: Designate how well matched student attempts are to a target letter formation using Not Yet Progressing (NYP), Progressing (P), and Ready (R).
  - NYP: The letter formation has some directionality and appropriate shape; however, the student attempt would not be recognizable without the reference letter.
  - P: The letter formation is recognizable and contains all essential features (e.g., number of lines, curves, points, intersections); however, some lines may not touch or close, extra strokes may be used in the attempt, and it may lack symmetry.
  - R: The letter formation reflects appropriate proportions, symmetry, closures, etc.; however, lines may still be shaky.
- Goal: Achieve Ready on all lowercase letter formations.
- Scores of Progressing or Ready indicate additional reteaching and reinforcement is required from Assessment and Remediation Guide Unit 4 Section IV, Writing: Lowercase Letter Formation.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

These materials are the result of the work, advice, and encouragement of numerous individuals over many years. Some of those singled out here already know the depth of our gratitude; others may be surprised to find themselves thanked publicly for help they gave quietly and generously for the sake of the enterprise alone. To helpers named and unnamed we are deeply grateful.

CONTRIBUTORS TO EARLIER VERSIONS OF THESE MATERIALS

Susan B. Albaugh, Kazuko Ashizawa, Nancy Braier, Kathryn M. Cummings, Michelle De Groot, Diana Espinal, Mary E. Forbes, Michael L. Ford, Ted Hirsch, Danielle Knecht, James K. Lee, Diane Henry Leipzig, Martha G. Mack, Liana Mahoney, Isabel McLean, Steve Morrison, Juliane K. Munson, Elizabeth B. Rasmussen, Laura Tortorelli, Rachael L. Shaw, Sivan B. Sherman, Miriam E. Vidaver, Catherine S. Whittington, Jeannette A. Williams

We would like to extend special recognition to Program Directors Matthew Davis and Souzanne Wright who were instrumental to the early development of this program.

SCHOOLS

We are truly grateful to the teachers, students, and administrators of the following schools for their willingness to field test these materials and for their invaluable advice: Capitol View Elementary, Challenge Foundation Academy (IN), Community Academy Public Charter School, Lake Lure Classical Academy, Lepanto Elementary School, New Holland Core Knowledge Academy, Paramount School of Excellence, Pioneer Challenge Foundation Academy, New York City PS 26R (The Carteret School), PS 30X (Wilton School), PS 50X (Clara Barton School), PS 96Q, PS 102X (Joseph O.
